

TUESDAY'S ELECTION

Duties of United States Marshals at the Polls.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S DECISION

Instructions Sent Out from the Department of Justice in Washington Through Solicitor General Aldrich—Extracts from the Law Relating to Elections.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The department of justice, through Solicitor General Aldrich, acting attorney general, has issued the following important statement as to the relations of federal and state officers at the election polling places:

The attention of the department having been called to certain alleged instructions to the police and state officers in Alabama, Arkansas and New York with reference to the conduct towards such deputy United States marshal as may be in attendance at the polling places, Acting Attorney General Aldrich ruled as follows:

"Such instructions bring their authors and all persons attempting to carry them into effect within the provisions of Section 5518 and 5522 of the criminal statutes of the United States, which are as follows:

SECTION 5518. If two or more persons in any state or territory conspire to prevent, by force, intimidation or threat, any person from accepting or holding any office, trust or place of confidence under the United States, or from discharging any duties thereof; or to induce by like means any officer of the United States to leave any state, district, or place, where his duties as an officer are required to be performed, or to injure him in his person or property on account of his lawful discharge of the duties of his office, or while engaged in the lawful discharge thereof, or to injure his property so as to molest, interrupt, or hinder, or impede him in the discharge of his official duties; each of such persons shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, or by imprisonment with or without hard labor, not less than six months nor more than six years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 5522. Every person, whether with or without any authority, power or process, or pretended authority, power or process, of any state, territory or municipality who obstructs, hinders, assaults, or by bribery, solicitation, or otherwise, interferes with or prevents the supervisors of election, or either of them, or the marshal or his general or special deputies, or either of them, in the performance of any duty required of them, or either of them, or which he or they, or either of them, may be authorized to perform by any law of the United States, in the execution of process or otherwise, or who by any of the means before mentioned hinders or perverts the free attendance and presence at such places of registration, or at such polls of election, or full and free access and egress to and from any such place of registration, or poll of election, or in going to and from any such place of registration, or poll of election, or to and from any room, where any such registration or election, or canvass of votes, or of making any returns or certificates thereof, may be had, or who molests, interferes with, removes, or ejects from any such place of registration or poll of election, or of canvassing votes cast thereat, or making returns or certificates thereof, any supervisor of election, the marshal, or his general or special deputies, or either of them, or who threatens, or attempts, or offers so to do, or refuses or neglects to aid and assist any supervisor of election, or the marshal or his general or special deputies, or either of them, in the performance of his or their duties, when required by him or them, or either of them, to give such aid and assistance shall be liable to instant arrest without process, and shall be punished by imprisonment not more than two years, or by a fine of not more than $3,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall pay the cost of the prosecution.

"In view of these provisions it is not thought that any person or combination of persons will seek in any way to interfere with the marshals in the discharge of their duties. Any such interference will be rigorously prosecuted. The marshals and their deputies are at such polling places as peace officers and not partisans, and their instructions allow no discrimination for or against any party. An honest ballot and a fair count is what the law was designed to provide, and its constitutionality has been so strongly upheld and the paramount power of the federal government so clearly asserted by the supreme court, that it would be idle to discuss that question. The idea that the United States is not as much the object of the people's love and patriotism as any state is utterly mischievous, although implied in the circulars referred to. A peace officer of the United States who seeks to prevent illegal voting no more invades the rights of American citizens than does the peace officer of a state. The impression that the federal government is a foreign power should be obliterated.

"The statement that Section 2021 is the only section authorizing the appointment of deputy marshals, and, therefore, that such appointments can be made only in cities of 20,000 inhabitants or upward, is not the view of the law entertained by the attorney general or myself, nor has such a view been held or expressed by any attorney general since the enactment of the law. So far as I can discover the instructions given by Attorney General Taft in his circular letter of Sept. 4, 1876, have been continuously acquiesced in. In this circular he said:

You will observe that the "special" deputies mentioned in Section 2021 of the revised statutes have peculiar duties assigned to them, duties which otherwise do not belong to deputy marshals. Such "special" deputies can be appointed only in cities of twenty thousand inhabitants or upward.

But duties assigned to marshals and their deputies by Section 2022, or other like statutes, belong to all duly appointed deputies, whether they be general, or be "special" within the meaning of that and the preceding section. Deputies to discharge this latter class of duties may be appointed to any number whatever, according to the discretion of the marshal in all states in which sheriffs have a similar power.

"The question whether the deputy marshals have the right to be within the guard rail of the polling places is answered in the attorney general's circular of Oct. 31, 1892, in the affirmative. As will be observed, Section 552, revised statutes, prescribes a penalty of imprisonment and fine against any person who, with or without the authority of any state or municipality, interferes with or prevents the marshal or his general or special deputies from the performance of any duty, or hinders or prevents their full and free access and egress to and from any such place of registration or poll of election. . . . or to or from any room where any such registration or election or canvass of votes . . . may be had."

"The statutes are so clear and explicit that I really can not see any room for discussion. I do not believe that any attempt will be made to violate this law or carry out the dangerous policy announced in the dispatches referred to. If such action is attempted of course trouble will come, as the same law prescribes penalties against any deputy who fails to perform his duty."

"Such a result all good citizens, irrespective of party, would deplore, and the consequence would fall upon those whose rash course led to such unwarranted resistance to the power of the federal government, a power which the supreme court of the United States has declared paramount when a member of congress or presidential elector is to be voted for to any state law or territory upon this subject."

"I will add that this is not a partisan question and they are not good citizens in my opinion who seek to make it one. No party can justly hope to deserve or win success by defiance or violations of the law of the land. However that may be our duty is plain. The laws must be enforced. The marshals are warned under the penalties of the law against any interference with the rights of citizens and at the same time they will guard and protect such rights at whatever cost."

THE GILCHER WRECK.

No Doubt But What the Vessel and Entire Crew are Lost.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4.—A special to The Press says the life saving crew at North Manitow Island, Mich., confirm the loss of the steamer W. H. Gilcher. Pieces of the wreck are said to have been picked up by the life savers who have been unable to learn anything that would indicate the survival of a single member of the Gilcher's crew. The owners of the vessel have received no further news of her and have given up all hope. They are convinced that the entire crew have been lost.

The crew of the Gilcher so far as known are as follows: Lloyd H. Weeks, master; Vermillion; Edward R. Porter, first mate; of Lorain; Finley, second mate; of Buffalo; Sidney B. Jones, chief engineer, of Marine City, Mich.; King, wheelman, of Chicago, formerly from Vermillion; Thompson, oiler, a son of Daniel Thompson; Charles Hontoon, oiler, of Marine City; Will Faulthauer, fireman, twenty-one years old, of Vermillion. This leaves ten men, the names of whom are unknown.

IRON INDUSTRY INVESTMENT.

An Extensive Mill to Be Built in Covington, Virginia.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—R. H. Sando, of London, who has been reported as visiting Homestead for the purpose of conferring with the strikers in contemplation of erecting a co-operative plant in that town, left for Philadelphia last night. He said to a United Press reporter that there was no scheme to erect such a plant at Homestead. His mission was to secure skilled men for an extensive iron and steel mill soon to be built near Covington, Va. English and American capital is interested.

Mr. Sando says his company has an option on 9,000 acres of iron and coal land in that district. Ground will be broken within three months and will be worked on the co-operative system of profit-sharing with the company's employees. He talked with the leading strikers at Homestead and they endorsed his ideas and agreed to form his force. He now has, he says, the choice of 1,000 good men. He said the deal was too premature to name any of the capitalists interested.

IRON HALL IN NEW YORK.

Insurance Men Will Fight Reorganization.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Nov. 4.—In special term of the supreme court yesterday Judge Parker appointed the Binghamton Trust company permanent receiver of the Iron Hall funds in this state. The temporary receivership of George E. Clines, of New York, was set aside.

The funds thus placed in charge of the trust company amount to about $200,000. It is said that all the agents of life insurance companies in this city recently held a meeting at which it was decided to take legal steps to restrain the movement for the reorganization of the Iron Hall in this city under the Baltimore plan. The appeal from the decision of the court, which appointed a receiver for the order of Iron Hall, will be argued at Indianapolis, Nov. 9, before the court of appeals.

Popular Engineer Killed.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—George K. Wheat, Jr., thirty years old, a popular locomotive engineer, employed by the Panhandle railroad, was struck and instantly killed by the Panhandle limited, No. 2, at McDonald station yesterday. He leaves a widow and two children, who reside at Wheeling.

DEAD DAHOMEYANS.

Thousands Killed by French Troops in Africa.

COLONEL DODDS HEARD FROM.

He Sends Further Details of the Two Days Fighting on October 20 and 21. He is Now Marching on to the Capital. Other Foreign Dispatches.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—Colonel Dodds, commanding the French forces operating against the Dahomeyans, has telegraphed further details of the fighting that took place Oct. 20 and 21. His dispatch says that the French were attacked by the whole strength of the Dahomeyans.

The Dahomeyans were concentrated in force at Akas, and the fighting for the two days resulted in the repulse of the natives with terrible loss. Though well armed, Behanzin's followers are not familiar with their weapons and have no idea of taking aim. This accounts for the small French loss during the two days fighting of ten killed and seventy-three wounded, while the loss of the native forces runs up into the thousands. This terrible slaughter is attributed to the deadly effects of the Lebel rifle.

After the battle overtures of peace were made to Col. Dodds. He insisted as a preliminary upon the evacuation of a strongly occupied position on the banks of the river Koto. This was refused, and on October 26 when the expected reinforcements arrived, the French column attacked and carried the lines of the entrenchment between Akas and Kotopa. The following day they followed up their success by capturing the strongly fortified position spoken of in the river Koto. This latter conquest is regarded as important.

After staying three days on the banks of the Koto, Colonel Dodds advanced along the road to Kana, preparing for his final march to Abomey, the capital. When the troops rested they were re-victualled.

Colonel Dodds concludes his dispatch by stating that the resistance of the Dahomeyans is becoming less vigorous owing to the enormous losses they have sustained in their numerous engagements with the French.

VERY LIKE A REVOLT.

Spaniards Mob Ministers' Houses and Shout for a Republic.

GRANADA, Nov. 4.—The queen's failure to attend the Columbus monument unveiling has been greatly resented here, and was the cause of more rioting Wednesday night. A mob assembled in the neighborhood of the monument and began to riot and pillage. They tore the veil from the monument and burned the royal tribune.

Whistles and horns had been secured by the rioters for use upon the arrival of the minister from Madrid. The ministers had been apprised of the state of things and failed to put in appearance. The mob then stoned the house of the conservative leader and tried to set fire to it. They succeeded in burning the Octroi offices and tore down the triumphal arches. "Long Live the Republic" was on many lips. In several collisions with the police many were injured; but the rioting continued and was still in progress at a late hour.

Roumania Victims Not Plundered.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company states that it is officially denied that the bodies washed ashore from the wrecked Roumania were plundered by the wreckers and that the jewelry missing from some of them is now in the hands of the authorities. The news of the merchandise washed ashore is admitted.

Osman Digna Heard from Again.

CAIRO, Nov. 4.—Osman Digna, who has been out of sight for a long time, has reappeared with a considerable force and occupied Shingait. He is making raids in the direction of Suakin.

Five Thousand Brewers Strike.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The employees of the Bass Breweries company, to the number of 5,000, struck yesterday against new regulations the company had adopted with regard to the working hours.

Miners Accept a Reduction.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Northumberland miners, by an almost unanimous vote, have decided to accept a 5 per cent. reduction of wages, instead of going on a strike.

Battleship Launched.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The first-class screw battleship Revenge was successfully launched yesterday at the Armstrong yard, Jarrow-on-Tyne.

STARVATION IN MEXICO.

Shocking Stories of Suffering Coming from Zacatecas.

ZACATECAS, Mex., Nov. 4.—The condition of the poorer classes of this city is extremely critical on account of the lack of the necessary food supplies. The streets are filled with beggars of every age and description. Their appeals for help are heartrending. The government is doing good work in relieving the sufferings, but there are several thousand famine-stricken people not within reach of this proffered assistance, and they are actually starving.

A number of free-eating houses have been established, but the capacity of such places is very limited. Instead of free distribution of corn being made here, as is being done in other cities of the republic, the grain is sold at cost price, and as those in actual need are without money with which to buy, they must do without food. Many of the poor people have fled to the mountains, where they are living on prickly pear, mesquite plant and mesquite bean.

ADULTERATED FOOD.

Startling Revelations Made by a Cincinnati Chemist.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—State and Dairy Commissioner McNeil has received from Professor Albert W. Smith, chemist at Cincinnati, some analyses of food articles sent to him for examination. Some "pure olive oil" put on the market by Thurber, Whyland & Company, of New York city, was found to be pure cotton seed oil and nothing else.

Some currant jelly, made by J. H. Heintz & Company, of Pittsburg, was found to be wholly innocent of currants. Some "pure malt vinegar," made by P. Duff & Sons, of Pittsburg, is pronounced by the chemist to be alcoholic vinegar colored. The Sun baking powder, made in Cleveland, has, it is calculated, 38 1-4 per cent. of alum, and a test is to be made to determine whether alum powders are deleterious. Some ground coffee was found to contain 30 per cent. chicory and 20 per cent. beans. The commissioner announces his intention of preventing the sale of these articles, and one arrest has already been made.

A TESTAMENT'S TALE.

Given Before Gettysburg and Returned in 1892.

MILLERSBURG, O., Nov. 4.—Postmaster J. W. Hostetter, of Orrville, a member of the Fourth Ohio volunteer infantry, lost a Testament, which his sister had presented him just before the battle of Gettysburg. When near Fancytown he stopped at a house for something to eat. His haversack was filled with biscuits by the woman of the house, and in return he gave her the Testament.

While on his return from the Washington encampment this year he visited Gettysburg and advertised for the book. Soon after he returned home he received a letter from Mrs. M. A. Rinehart, of Frizzleburg, Md., stating the book was in her family, and on reply from Mr. Hostetter the book was received by him a few days ago in good condition and a much valued relic.

HUMAN VAMPIRE.

A Crazy Prisoner Taken from the Penitentiary to an Asylum.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—James Brown, a crazy United States prisoner, was yesterday removed from the Ohio penitentiary to an asylum at Washington. Brown was a Portuguese sailor, and was convicted in Massachusetts way back in the sixties for murdering two shipmates and sucking their blood. He is a human vampire.

His death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by President Andrew Johnson in 1867. He fought like a tiger yesterday when being removed. His hallucination being that the prison officials intended to take him off and hang him in spite of President Johnson's commutation.

Edwin Booth's Condition.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Edwin Booth arrived in this city from Lakewood yesterday at noon and was driven to the Players' club. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Grossman. He is comfortably installed in his apartments at the club, where he intends to remain indefinitely. Mr. Booth is still in a very weak condition, but it is authoritatively stated that the accounts of his recent illness were very much exaggerated. Mr. Booth's plans for the future are not known.

Weavers' Wages Raised.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 4.—The manufacturers at a meeting yesterday voted to increase the wages of weavers to twenty-one cents per cut, and all other departments in proportion. This is practically an advance of about 7 per cent., and restores wages to the standard of 1884. The vote was almost unanimous, and was voluntary on the part of the manufacturers.

Farmers Suffering Inconvenience.

READING, Pa., Nov. 4.—Rain fell here for several hours yesterday but the sun subsequently broke through the clouds and the temperature was like that of early summer. Nothing but a settled rain of three days will replenish the water supply of this section of the state. Many springs and wells are dry and the farmers continue to suffer great inconvenience.

Selling Water by the Gallon.

PALMYRA, Pa., Nov. 4.—On account of the failure of the water supply most of the residents of this place are hauling water. Rain fell in the Lebanon valley yesterday but not in sufficient quantities to do much good. Water is being sold in the streets of this place by the gallon. Some small streams have totally disappeared in consequence of the protracted drouth.

Juvenile Train Wreckers.

DETROIT, Nov. 4.—Michael Connolley, ten years old, and James Dowling, aged eleven, both of Saginaw, were lodged in jail charged with turning a Michigan Central railroad semaphore in West Detroit Wednesday morning, for the purpose of wrecking trains. Two passenger trains were delayed half an hour, but stopped in time to avoid accident.

He Took a Large Dose of Morphine.

WABASH, Ind., Nov. 4.—William Higgins, a young man, died very suddenly in the eastern part of this city last night. He had been dissipating and had taken a large dose of morphine, whether with suicidal intent or not is unknown. Going out on the commons near the home of his father he lay down under a tree, and an hour later was found dead.

Homestead Guard Dead.

RIDGEWAY, Pa., Nov. 4.—Lieutenant Colonel W. S. Horton, of the Sixteenth regiment, national guards of Pennsylvania, died Tuesday of malarial fever contracted while at Homestead with his regiment. Colonel Horton was probro-nary of Elk county and a prominent Democrat.

INCENDIARY FIRES.

Seven Attempts to Burn a Pennsylvania Town.

GREAT EXCITEMENT PREVAILS.

A Vigilance Committee is Being Formed and a Determined Effort Made to Run Down the Fiends—Incendiary Fire in a Prison—Other Fire Losses.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Nov. 4.—Great excitement prevails in this city over numerous incendiary fires in the past two days. Early yesterday evening the Hubbard Axe company was damaged to the extent of $3,000, and 250 men will be thrown out of employment. Later several store rooms on Seventh avenue were completed gutted and two families were rescued with difficulty.

At 11 o'clock the seventh alarm in the past two days brought the fire department to the First ward, where it was discovered that a deliberate attempt had been made to burn the barn of a man named Remlar. The fire was extinguished. Two men were seen leaving the barn shortly before. This confirms the growing suspicion of incendiarism as only one of the seven fires has been accounted for.

At this hour the greatest excitement prevails. Members of council and city officials and citizens are holding a private meeting to take action in the matter. A vigilance committee is being formed and a determined effort made to run down the fiends. So far suspicion rests on no particular person or persons. Citizens are doing police duty in patrolling the streets.

TO BURN A MURDERER.

Elevator Destroyed by Friends of the Dead Man.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—A special to The News from Plainfield, Ind., says: The large Tuley elevator and the Vandalia passenger depot at this place were destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The elevator contained 5,000 bushels of wheat, all of which were destroyed.

The fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin and it is believed was the work of certain friends of the man Williams who was killed in a political rally a week ago by a man named Allison. It had been reported that Allison was concealed in the elevator and was being fed by his parents who lived near by. Allison was not in the elevator, however, as he left town immediately after the crime was committed. The affair has created great excitement in this quiet Quaker village.

FIRE IN PRISON.

An Incendiary's Method of Releasing Convicts.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—There was a small fire in the shoe shop of the Charlestown state prison Wednesday evening that had evidently been set by an incendiary. It originated in a large box of shoe shanks, the contents of which had been thoroughly saturated with oil, and in the center of which, it is said, was set a clock-work arrangement and chemical with which to ignite the fire. There was no confusion among the convicts, who were all in their cells when the fire was discovered. It is thought that the incendiary intention was to have the fire break out about the time the prisoners were being returned to their cells from the shops, so that in the confusion that was almost sure to follow some of them might escape.

Seven Redskins Incinerated.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 4.—Wild Goose Bill, who has just arrived in the city from Okanagon county, brings news of the burning of seven Indians near Alma Monday night. They had come across from the reservation and got drunk and the United States marshal drove them back. They went to an abandoned cabin and held an orgie until 2 o'clock in the morning. About that hour settlers observed a bright light and investigation showed that the cabin had caught fire and burned the Indians, who were in drunken stupor. They were all burned to death, only their charred bodies remaining.

Dastardly Deed Done by Miners.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 4.—A special from Oliver Springs says the house of Mrs. Lewis was completely destroyed by fire last night. A crowd of miners marched into town and openly set the house on fire. Mrs. Lewis was very kind to the soldiers, and that is the cause of the miners' dastardly deed. Captain Roach, here, called for volunteers, and one hundred responded and are ready to march at a moment's notice.

Burned to Death.

STANFORD, Ky., Nov. 4.—News comes from Laurel county that a young man named Langford lay down upon the roadside to rest and went to sleep. A forest fire was raging at the time, and when he awoke it had reached him and his clothing had taken fire. He was unable to put it out and was so badly burned that he died in about eight hours.

Barn and Contents Burned.

WINCHESTER, O., Nov. 4.—A large barn belonging to Wiley Campbell, south of here, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday, including farming machinery, hay, corn, 200 bushels of wheat and a large quantity of leaf tobacco. Loss, $1,500, with small insurance. How the fire originated remains a mystery.

Forest Fires Spreading.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Nov. 4.—Forest fires are still raging fiercely in this neighborhood. A number of cattle, goat and sheep were burned last night. More than thirty thousand acres of timber have been destroyed, and the fire is rapidly extending to the north.

SINCE when did the Republican nominee for Circuit Judge become a non-partisan? EVERY laboring man in this country knows from his actual personal experience that while the McKinley bill does not increase the money he takes in, it does increase the amount he pays out.—Senator Carlisle. THERE are ten positions to be filled by the next Circuit Judge, and the Republican nominee knows full well that he would place some member of his own party in every one of the offices if he is elected. Still, he is going about trying to bamboozle Democrats by saying this is a "non-political" fight. EVERY member of President Harrison's Cabinet with the exception of the Secretary of State is on the stump—a dignified spectacle which demonstrates the confidence the administration has in the result, remarks the Courier-Journal. Well, the office-holders nominated him, and they ought to do all they can to elect him. Mr. "Andy" Cochran has been up in Greenup this week, where he made a "short non-political speech," according to a special from that point. His only hope of election is in securing Democratic votes, and for this reason, and this only, he is going about over the district trying to work his "non-political" bunco game on a lot of Democrats. Mr. MCCARTNEY, in his speech last night at the court house, attempted to illustrate what a great blessing the McKinley bill is to the working men of this country. He said a tariff of five cents was placed on eggs to protect the farmer, and the price of eggs at once jumped from 7 cents a dozen to 12 cents. "Yes, and we workingmen have to pay that extra five cents a dozen now or do without eggs," exclaimed some man in the audience. The remark was not loud enough to be heard by Mr. McCartney, but it was heard by several in the audience. It shows that that workingman has learned by practical experience just how the tariff affects him. We have information from reliable sources that many Republicans will vote for Hon. James P. Harbeson next Tuesday. They admire him as a man. They have known him for years, and they know he always has a smile, a pleasant word and a warm hand-shake for every one he meets, and they know also that he is thoroughly fitted for the position he seeks. He is close to the people, and will be the people's Judge. And then his plan of campaign is so different from that of his opponent. He does not try to catch votes with the plea that the office is a "non-political" one. That would be like the plans of bunco-steerer whose success is in roping in "suckers." Mr. Harbeson's plan is the open, the manly one—no double-dealing—and the people admire him all the more for it.

HOW TO VOTE. If You Want Your Ballot to Count in the Coming Election. An Easy Matter to Put in a Straight Ticket—Observe the Following Instructions. Under the new election law the tickets of all parties are printed on the same sheet, appearing in parallel columns under the party device. For want of space only the tickets of the Democratic and Republican party are given below. Any person desiring to vote and legally entitled to vote shall give his name and residence to the clerk holding the ballots, who shall write the same upon the main stub of the ticket in the blank places provided therefor. Such officer shall then mark upon the secondary stub the voter's registered number, in all precincts in which a registration law is in straight Democratic ticket he can vote for every person whose name appears in the Democratic column by making a cross mark (X) with the stencil or stamp in the large square containing the rooster. Put the mark right under the rooster's feet and as close to them as possible.

 If the voter desires to vote for all the persons in the Democratic column except one or more, and wishes to vote in one or more races for the candidate of another party, he should make a cross mark (X) in the square containing the rooster, and a cross mark in the small square opposite and to the right of the name of the candidate of the other party for whom he desires to vote, and this will cast his vote for every name in the Democratic column except in the races in which he has made a cross mark (X) opposite the name of the candidate of another party.
 If the voter desires to vote for all the persons in the Democratic column except in one or more races and does not wish to vote in such races at all, for any person, he must make a cross mark (X) in the space opposite and to the right of every person in the Democratic column for whom he wishes to vote.
 Should a voter desire to vote all the Republican ticket except for Circuit Judge for which office he wishes to vote for the Democratic candidate, he will make his (X) mark in the large square containing the eagle and also a (X) mark in the small square to the right of the name of the Democratic candidate.

force, and in all other precincts the voter's full name, and the stub book for this purpose shall take the place of a poll book.
 The clerk shall then detach the ballot, with the secondary stub attached, from the main stub, and write his own name on the back thereof, and hand it, thus indorsed, to the voter. The clerk shall give him one, and only one, ballot, and, on request of voter, shall give explanation of the manner of voting. On receipt of his ballot, the elector shall forthwith, and without leaving the room, retire to one of the voting booths, as provided, and shall prepare his ballot by marking in the appropriate square a cross mark (X). If the elector mark more names than there are persons to be elected to an office, or if, for any reason, it is impossible to determine the voter's choice for an office to be filled, his ballot shall not be counted for such office. No ballot shall be rejected for any technical error which does not make it impossible to determine the voter's choice.
 It is only necessary for the voter to make a cross mark (X) to indicate for whom he votes, and this cross mark (X) must not be made with anything except the stencil or stamp that will be found in the booth, and the voter should observe these instructions:
 First—If the voter wishes to vote the

Should a voter desire to vote all the Republican ticket except for Appellate Judge for which office he wishes to vote for the Democratic nominee, he will make a cross mark (X) in the large square containing the eagle and also a cross (X) mark in the small square to the right of the name of the Democratic candidate.
 Should a voter wish to vote all the Republican ticket except for Congress, for which office he desires to vote for the Democratic nominee, he will make a cross mark (X) in the large square containing the eagle and also a cross mark (X) in the small square to the right of the Democratic nominee.
 If you don't vote a straight ticket, always put a cross mark (X) in the large square containing your party device, and also a cross mark (X) in the small square to the right of the other candidates you wish to vote for.
 Use nothing but the rubber stencil in marking your ballot.
 If you ruin your first ballot don't tear it up, but take it back to the Election Clerk and get another. You are entitled to three.
 Do not use pen, ink or lead pencil. Use rubber stamp (X) only. Rubber stamp, attached to a small handle, and ink pad will be found in the election booth. Dip stamp into ink pad. Press it on the ticket immediately under the rooster's feet, inside the square, at the top of the first column on left hand side of the ballot. This votes the straight Democratic ticket.

THERE will be no prayer meeting at the court house to-night, as the congregation of the M. E. Church, South, is moving into their new house of worship.

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY SALLER spoke at Burtonville Wednesday night, and was greeted by a large and enthusiastic crowd. Judge Phister will speak at same place to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock.

Don't buy a gold watch until you learn P. J. Murphy's prices. His prices are without question the lowest; quality the best. Every watch regulated before sold. All other goods in his line can be bought of him for less money than elsewhere. Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

THE popular, affable and painstaking Representative of the Ninth district, Hon. T. H. Paynter, made an able speech at the court house Saturday night to a large and appreciative crowd. With a patriotic purpose, a wholesome pride in his party, a thorough knowledge of the needs of the hour, his speech was able, eloquent, sound.—Cynthiana Courier.

THE REPUBLICAN MEETING.

The Faithful Turn Out in Full Force to Hear Their Nominee for Congress.

Hon. John P. McCartney, Republican nominee for Congress, was accorded an enthusiastic reception by the Maysville members of the G. O. P. last night. The court house was packed, and Mr. McCartney has reasons to feel proud of the warm welcome extended him. The colored brethren were out in force, and some of them became so hilarious and so boisterous that a white Republican finally got up and left, and was heard to remark: "This is too much for me."

The Republicans were well pleased with Mr. McCartney's speech, but his denunciation of Democrats and everything Democratic was not calculated to make any converts. The speaker touched on most every question imaginable, using the "stock" arguments put forth by his party for years. His tariff talk was weak. One minute he would tell his hearers "the tariff is not a tax," and in the next breath he would show very plainly that the tariff is a tax. For want of something good to say in favor of the Republicans' pet measure, the Force bill, he made light of it. He next threw out a bit of taffy for the veterans, and then, unintentionally of course, gave "Andy" Cochran a "sock-dolager" right square in the neck; he said he was not "begging votes," and they do say Andy has been "begging" Democrats to vote for him ever since his nomination.

He thought it was awful that a district so important as this had no public building, and of course the Democrats were to blame for it. He seemed to forget that the Republicans had three men in Congress in succession from this district—Culbertson, Wadsworth and Thomas—and none of them ever got anything for the district.

One can judge of the speaker's remarks on the tariff by his talk on eggs referred to elsewhere.

From the length of time Mr. McCartney dwelt on Kentucky affairs and the Kentucky Legislature, one would imagine he was a candidate for a State office. He ought to keep better posted on State affairs, however. He talked about the State Treasury being bankrupt, when there is right now over half a million dollars in the treasury, and that, too, after paying out over a million dollars to the public schools in the past month or so, and the expenses of the Legislature.

Mr. A. M. J. Cochran, Republican nominee for Circuit Judge, followed Mr. McCartney in a short speech in which he argued that the office he seeks is "non-political" in its character. He paid Judge Harbeson a high compliment, said he himself had an ambition to be a Judge, and promised to devote his best energies to the office, if elected.

Brown and Bradley.

Colonel William O. Bradley, the well-known Republican orator, looks very much like Jason B. Brown, the Democratic Congressman from the Third Indiana district, says the Louisville Post. They are built alike, take alike and dress alike. Colonel Bradley was making a speech in the New Albany Opera House the other night when a Democrat happened in. He listened awhile and then went over to a neighboring saloon kept by a Democrat and remarked in a confidential manner: "We might as well give it up. I'll be d—d if Jason Brown ain't over there in the opera house making a speech for Harrison."

Mr. Brown having heard of this will make a speech in reply to Colonel Bradley in New Albany some night before the close of the campaign.

"The Bells."

Mr. Clay Clement came to the Lyceum unheralded by loud-mouthed press agents and flaring posters, entirely unknown to the theater loving people of the city, says the Detroit Critic. He opened his engagement in "The Bells" to a small audience many of whom were there on passes. Next morning the young tragedian awoke to find himself famous in a night. Detroit is one of the first large cities in which he appeared as a star, and his reception should be a source of much satisfaction to himself and his managers, proving, as it does, the fact that his success as a player with legitimate aspirations is assured by the warm welcome given him.

At opera house next Monday night, in Irving's great piece "The Bells."

Church Dedication.

The elegant new M. E. Church, South, is completed, and will be dedicated Sunday. The dedicatory sermon will be preached by Rev. J. Reeves, Presiding Elder of this district. A fine song service has been arranged, and the services will be interesting and profitable to all. The public cordially invited.

Grand Democratic Rally.

The Democrats of Mason will close the campaign with a grand rally to-morrow night at the court house. Eloquent speakers. Music by Haucke's band. Everybody invited.

THE next annual meeting of the State Lodge of Sons of Temperance will be held in Augusta, October 27, 1893.

THERE was a rise of over two feet at Pittsburg Wednesday, making four feet nine inches below Davis Island dam.

REV. JOHN R. PEEPLES will preach at Canaan Church (near Ruggles Camp Ground) next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

THE new towboat of the Huntington and St. Louis Towboat Company will be named after the veteran Commander Wash Honsell.

"UNCLE" JACK HOOK is again dangerously ill at his home in Paris. He is suffering from pneumonia, the second time this fall, and his recovery is doubtful.

THERE was another good meeting last night on Lawrence Creek. Elder Degman, the pastor, got back and preached to a large audience. Three additions up to date.

THE ends of the Cincinnati and Huntington division of the C. and O. railway will hereafter be at Ashland instead of Russell, the change having been made November 1st.

BARTLEY CAMPBELL's highly sensational play, "The White Slave," comes to the Washington Opera House soon. A capable company is presenting the play, and business has been as good as ever.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR SHEEHAN, of New York, says: "The perfect machinery of Tammany Hall is something wonderful. At sunrise on election morning there will be 10,000 thoroughly trained and disciplined men in charge of the 1,137 election districts. Every man will know just what he has to do and how to do it."

SAYS the New York World: "Barney Rouke, of the old Eighth Assembly District, and John Y. McKane, of Gravesend, supported Harrison four years ago. They are now solid for Cleveland, and they will jointly deliver at least 3,500 votes to Cleveland that were cast against him in 1888. This means a difference of 7,000 votes."

GOVERNOR BROWN has fixed December 9th, as the date for executing murderers Hite, McCarthy and Thomas, now in the Jefferson County jail. He also granted Nelson Lewis, who was sentenced to hang November 11th, a respite until the other executions. The four men will be hung together. Hite and McCarthy are white, and the other two are colored.

REV. B. W. MEBANE and family left last night for their new home at Radford, Va. The people of Maysville, especially the members of Mr. Mebane's church, regretted to see him and his estimable family take their departure. The good wishes of all go with them. The Central Presbyterian Church has prospered under Mr. Mebane's ministrations. Many have been added to the membership, an elegant new pipe organ, the finest in the city, has been put up in and paid for, and arrangements have been completed to pay all indebtedness on the church.

The McKinley bill, I repeat, was passed for the purpose of cementing more closely the union between the money power of the country and the Republican party. It professes to have been passed in the interests of the laboring man. But every laboring man in this country knows from his actual personal experience that while it does not increase the money he takes in, it does increase the amount he pays out. Every laboring man knows that the tariff can not and does not add one cent to the amount of his wages, while it reduces their purchasing power in the markets where he is compelled to buy the supplies for himself and his family.—Senator Carlisle.

Official Ballots.

The official ballots, together with the stencils and ink-pads, for the election next Tuesday were received yesterday afternoon by County Clerk Pearce. They will be distributed among the precincts to-morrow and Monday.

Paynter's for the People.

"Big Sandy" is getting tired of answering this question: "Why does 'Big Sandy' (being a Republican) write for a Democratic paper?" Well, it's "Big Sandy's" own business. Where can you find a better man to vote for than Tom Paynter? He don't ask you if you are a Democrat or Republican; if he can do anything for anybody he does it, without regard to politics. He is for the people.—Cattlettsburg Democrat correspondence.

JUDGE GRESHAM.

All Doubts Settled—He Will Vote for Grover Cleveland Next Tuesday.

Judge Gresham has settled all doubts as to how he will vote next Tuesday.

He has written a letter to Hon. Bluford Wilson, of Illinois, in which he puts that question at rest.

This letter was given out by the National Democratic Executive Committee this week, and it is a telling campaign document.

After saying he intended voting for Cleveland next Tuesday, he adds: "I voted the Republican ticket at every Presidential election since the party was organized, except in 1865, when I was not able to go to the polls.

"Republicans were pledged to a reduction of the war tariff long before 1888, and during the campaign of that year the pledge was renewed with emphasis again and again. Instead of keeping that promise the McKinley bill was passed imposing still higher duties. It was passed in the interest of the favored classes, and not for the benefit of the whole people. It neither enhanced the price of farm products nor benefited labor. Wages are and ever will be regulated by supply and demand. Duties were imposed upon some articles so high as to destroy competition and foster trusts and monopolies. I think you will agree with me that this was an abandonment of the doctrine of moderate incidental protection. The tariff is now the most important question before the people, and whatever others may do I shall exercise the right or individual judgment and vote according to my convictions.

"I think, with you, that a Republican can vote for Mr. Cleveland without joining the Democratic party. How I shall vote in the future depends upon the questions at issue. Yours very truly,

W. Q. GRESHAM.

IAMS' CASE.

Evidence All in and the Argument Has Begun.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—There were about fifty people present when the Iams case was resumed yesterday. Nearly the entire day was put in examining witnesses for the defense without revealing anything startling or different from what had already been learned.

The testimony closed with the examination of Private Jacobs, who was questioned on minor points. Mr. Buchanan then asked the court to discharge the jury as to Dr. Grimm. A discussion arose over the matter. Judge Porter said: "Where an enlisted man or officer acts under instructions of superior officers he is protected, unless he uses malice. The evidence does not indicate that there was any malice on the part of Dr. Grimm. So far as he is concerned, it appears that it is a question to be determined whether he acted under the instructions of his superiors or not."

Senator Robbins, counsel for Colonel A. L. Hawkins, then requested the court to so instruct the jury on behalf of his client, claiming that Colonel Hawkins was in no manner subject to the charge of assault and battery, beyond that he had reported the fact of the punishment of Private Iams to his (Hawkins) superior officer. Mr. Buchanan then submitted the points on behalf of Dr. Grimm, claiming his exemption from guilt, on account of his having acted only upon orders received from his superiors in rank.

After a brief consultation among the counsel for the defense, Mr. Braden offered the general points, covering the whole case and all of the defendants. Mr. Braden claimed that no evidence had been offered, that the officers of the national guard were actuated by malice, ill-will or revenge, and that the punishment was inflicted upon Private W. L. Iams for no other purpose than that of maintaining good order and military discipline in their command, then on duty.

Counsel for both sides then held a brief consultation as to the arguments. Counsel for the defense offered to submit the case without argument, but Judge Porter said the prosecution was not bound to agree to that. Attorney Iams said the counsel for the commonwealth preferred to address the jury. The court then allotted each side an hour and a half. Mr. Braddock then spoke to the jury from 4 to nearly 5 o'clock, when court adjourned.

EARTHQUAKE FESTIVAL.

Grand Naval Display at Charleston, South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 4.—More than sixty thousand people witnessed the grand naval display of the earthquake festival last night. Of this number about fifty thousand lined the high sea wall and the remainder witnessed the bombardment from steamers and sailing vessels and small craft in the harbor.

It was a perfect Charleston night and the arrangements for the display worked without a hitch. Fort Sumter, built on lighters, was anchored in the inner bay, as were miniature representations of the batteries on Morris Island. Tugboats represented the attacking fleet. The bombs used in the affair were manufactured especially for the occasion and produced realistic effects.

The officers and crews of the United States war vessels and the revenue cutter witnessed the display from the decks of these vessels and were delighted. There was absolutely no sentiment involved; no flags used.

WOOSTER, O., Nov. 4.—Geiselman Brothers' agricultural warehouse burned yesterday. Loss on machinery $8,000 to $10,000, on building $2,000. Insurance $1,000. There is no question but the fire was the work of an incendiary.
